throughout This delightful 3-bedroom residence offers a seamless blend of original Federation characteristics, such as high ceilings, stunning timber floors, intricate woodwork, and charming stained windows, while featuring contemporary updates including a brand-new bathroom for ultimate convenience.

Set on approximately 5 private acres, the home is complemented by a spacious wrap-around veranda, perfect for enjoying morning coffees or evening sunsets. The addition of a garage ensures ample space for vehicles and storage, while the eco-friendly septic system adds a sustainable touch.

Further enhancing this property's appeal, a newly built 2-bedroom separate home provides an independent and versatile living space conveniently positioned a good distance from the main dwelling. Modern open plan living and dining, two separate bedrooms and a large front deck to soak in the views across farmland. Whether used for extended family or guests, this contemporary addition includes a modern bathroom, offering privacy and comfort. Additionally, the separate studio with a bathroom and kitchenette facilities makes for an ideal office space or creative studio.

The property has ample water and a separate old dairy with power. This property will appeal to those looking for essentially 3 homes on a manageable acreage. The owners are serious about moving and have requested all reasonable offers be brought forward.

This is an exceptional opportunity to embrace the best of both worlds—Federation-era charm and modern functionality—on a generous plot of land. Don't miss your chance to make this unique property your own! Flexible settlement terms may be available to the right buyer!
