

4 The Avenue St, Alstonville

Heritage Home, Walk to Everything

The home has beautiful original features inside and out. With timber floors and high ceilings, plus traditional fretwork. There is ducted air-conditioning and the two bathrooms have been recently renovated to a very high standard.

There are three bedrooms and three sleep outs. The rooms are spacious and light filled. A country style kitchen and adjoining dining space is at the rear of the home and there is a cosy living room.

This character home is only a short stroll from the village centre, making for very easy access to all the town conveniences, local shops, supermarkets, cafes, galleries, restaurants, schools, medical and care centres.

There is no yard.
