You will be delighted with the open plan design of this home with timber look floors throughout the living, kitchen and dining areas and new carpet in the bedrooms. The kitchen is new and is every home chef and entertainers dream, with modern white gloss with marble-look benchtops and excellent electrical appliances. There is a separate laundry and newly renovated main bathroom plus ample storage is available throughout the home.

Ladies you will love the modern appeal to this home and the men will be equally impressed with the car accommodation, side access and the superb "Man shed". Set at the rear of the home is this separate, three bay, colour bond shed with power, great for extra vehicles, boat and large workshop space. The yard is fully fenced and private providing a good area for the kids and family pets to play securely and freely. Along with the shed is a wide tandem carport hidden behind electronic gates. The home has been fitted with 5 kw of solar electricity panels which allows the current owners to be powered for free.

The grounds are easy care, planted with natives and flowing shrubs and there is a top covered entertainment area which is fabulous for hosting family bbqs and parties. This property is on the northern side of the village, just an easy stroll to town, schools, cafes and shops. This property will be very attractive to families and retirees, the current owner has a work transfer and is looking for an immediate sale. For an inspection please call exclusive agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936.
