bedrooms, three bathrooms, two separate living areas, well equipped full cedar timber kitchen with a butler's pantry, north facing verandah off the living areas, ensuite to main bedroom, covered outdoor entertainment area and picturesque view over the land, double lock up plus machinery shedding and original dairy bales. This land is rich fertile land suitable for grazing and agriculture ventures... it is time to live the country dream!

Currently the property is set up as mixed farming with 44 cows being agisted and approx. 400 macadamia plantation along with an orchard of bearing citrus, pecan nut, mulberry and mango trees. The property has a picturesque creek running through it where platypuses have often been sighted plus a great swimming hole for the kids to enjoy! With a combination of flat, rolling hills, pockets of gum trees and rainforest and is home to a wonderful array of nature habitat including koalas.

Originally run as a dairy farm, the home was designed and built with a great deal of thought, the floor plan works well for separation of living, the main bedroom is to one end of the home and all the bedrooms are extremely large, there is a three way main bathroom and separate laundry and extra shower toilet situated in the garage area. The formal living and dining room is spacious and features a cosy fireplace. Abundant light flows through this home with large floor to ceiling windows and doors surrounding all the rooms. The home has lovely outdoor sitting verandas which are a great spot to relax and take in the true ambiance of this tranquil setting. Internal access from the garage area is available.

This property is on the school run and is 30 mins to Ballina and Evans Head. A short drive to the business area of Lismore for professionals and the quaint Villages of Alstonville, Tregear and Rous. The property is well fenced and would suit horses or cattle, along with fantastic areas for the kids to ride dirt bikes or just lose themselves in the outdoor open spaces. You will love the quaint dairy bales that could be converted to a guest's cottage and you can build a second dwelling on this property
