Focusing on both comfortable living and easy entertaining the generous family room flows seamlessly through glass sliding doors onto a large undercover patio adjacent to the in-ground swimming pool that is sure to be the envy of all. The kitchen is original but well-appointed with quality appliances, large pantry, dishwasher and mesmerising views!

Aside from a functional floor plan with stunning living spaces, high ceilings and timber features, the home has been meticulously constructed and maintained to an exceptional standard and includes ducted air conditioning. There's even a toasty open fire place in the formal living....perfect ambient temperatures are assured at any time of year.

Parking is catered for by a large double garage with remote control and store room. An additional shed and vegie patch complete the package.

Perfectly situated only minutes to Medical facilities, shopping and sports centres, you'll soon see that everything about this home is exceptional - from the size of the rooms, to the quality of appointments, to the quiet position. All that is left to do is inspect... fall in love... and move on in!
