There is a lovely new outdoor covered entertaining area at the rear that overlooks a great yard, plenty of space for a market garden, trampoline and space to keep a dog! Downstairs there is internal access from a single lock up garage with remote controlled door, excellent storage space and room under the house for all the garden equipment, bikes and extra items. This large spacious unit has a pretty outlook across to bushland reserve. There is a quaint front veranda to sit and relax with an afternoon beverage while taking in the picturesque views.

No body corp, just shared insurance with the neighbouring unit makes this a highly desirable property. This would suit first home buyers, investors or someone looking for a home at the entry price level. Be quick on this one as it has to be the buy of the century!
