Downstairs is a fabulous rumpus room, home office or fourth bedroom. This space is extremely large and could be used for multiple uses, it would work especially well as a space to run a home business with its own entry downstairs away from the family residence. There is internal access to a generous double garage and work shop.

The gardens are low maintenance and complete with solar panels, close to the major shopping centres, hospitals and university makes for a convenient place to live.

Positioned on the high side of the road with easy access for vehicles along with space to store a van off road this property will appeal to first home buyer's, young families, investors and the active retiree. You would be hard pressed to find an immaculate well presented home currently on the market, the owners are looking for an immediate sale and will listen to all genuine offers. Call exclusive selling agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 to arrange a viewing today. No Saturday viewings available on this one!
