There are high ceilings, spacious rooms, ducted air-conditioning, a woodfire heater and lovely polished timber floors with classic elements of federation styling that blends well with the modern fixtures and fittings throughout the home.

A modern kitchen that will appeal to any great entertainer or home chef, plus two great living spaces and a study room, separate laundry, four bedrooms, a large separate master bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite complete with large picture windows and sliding doors that open onto the wrap around verandas.

The main living and dining areas combine to form an atmospheric entertaining space that spills out onto the wide, covered entertainment deck and verandas. The property faces north from the front and overlooks a sensational in ground swimming pool. The second living space is a separate media/family room that the kids can relax in and enjoy a good movie or their favourite games.

"Le Paradis" offers a unique combination of contemporary living and lifestyle. With solar power heating for the pool and lots of added modern extras this is a home that you can move straight into without any further expenses and enjoy the very best of country living. Situated just 10mins to Lismore, Eltham and Alstonville yet only a short drive to the coast and the beaches. This property will appeal to modern day professionals and families wanting to be close to the business centre, hospital, private schools and university. With no close neighbours those looking for privacy will love this position. The property has room for a few horses to roam or just enjoy the open space for the kids to run freely. There is also a great array of fruit trees and market gardens and easement for water.
