

SOLD BY ROBYN HUNT

What an outstanding opportunity to own a free-standing home that is not only highly affordable but is also ideally located within walking distance to the university, and all the conveniences on offer in the Lismore Central Business District. Schools, sporting fields, entertainment, shopping and so much more - they're all close by. This is a great one to add to your property portfolio at this price or a fantastic way to secure your first home.

So much has already been done here for you including new floor coverings, updated kitchen and bathroom, new hot water service, a second toilet, and the roof is in excellent condition. The modern kitchen even includes the luxury of touch of soft-close doors and drawers.

Featuring three large bedrooms with high ceilings the home is light-filled and includes expansive open plan living and dining
