divine light-filled separate meals/family area. There is one bathroom, plus a second toilet with basin to add extra convenience, and plenty of space to add an ensuite off the main bedroom.

A drive-through second garage leads to the delightful rear garden with plenty of space for a shed, pool, potential second dwelling or just an indulgent spot to enjoy the beauty of this unique allotment. There is a wide entertainment deck at the rear which will fast become a favourite place to relax with friends or hold a family BBQ whilst taking in the joyous array of pretty flowering shrubs and trees, cottage gardens with a gorgeous array of very special bromeliads along with the well set out market garden.

There are only a handful of homes of this calibre making it one of the elite locations to acquire. Stroll outside and you will find yourself a hop skip and jump to the local shopping centre, cafes, schools, daycare centre, university, scenic walking track and golf course - adding to the highly desirable appeal for families and professionals.

This is once in a lifetime opportunity to secure a special part of our regions history - without the limitations of a heritage listing. Please call exclusive selling agent, Robyn Hunt, on 0448 448 758 to learn more of the fascinating history and arrange your viewing.
