home. The home has internal access from a double lock up garage and entry to a good-sized workshop.

The yard at the rear is all flat and enjoys a large covered entertainment area which adjoins the sparkling in ground pool which is great for entertaining with family and friends.

The gardens are landscaped with pretty flowering shrubs and plants, well maintained terraced areas with rock walls and has plenty of space to park the van and extra vehicles off the road. There is even room to build a shed!

You will love the position of this property which is set on the northern ridges and an easy drive to shopping centres, schools, hospital and the university. It makes this a very desirable position for families and professionals, which is 10 minutes drive to Alstonville and 20 minutes to the beaches of Ballina.

Immaculate inside and out this home is set to impress the most discerning home buyers. The current owner is downsizing to her retirement villa and is serious about relocating. Please call exclusive selling agent Melanie Stewart to arrange a viewing on 0421 560 936.
